NNI – Your key to bid adjustments in Nunavut – if you register

Are you a Nunavut business registered with the NNI Registry? Are you aware that you have to renew your registration on an annual basis in order to remain on the list and be eligible for bid adjustments?

There are a large number of business registrations on the NNI Business Registry that will expire on June 30, 2009.

If you have not renewed your registration this year or want to check if your registration is about to expire, please check the NNI Business Registry at <http://nni.gov.nu.ca> or call our toll free number at 1-888-975-5999.

Renew your registration now to ensure that your business remains on the NNI Business Registry.
