

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

COOK – SUMMER 2009

(1 Iqaluit-based position)

approx. 05 July until at least mid-August

Peregrine Diamonds would like to hire a COOK from Iqaluit for our Qilaq Project. The work would be based at a local Bed & Breakfast, which Peregrine has rented as a project crew house for the summer; cooking services would be provided daily for approximately 6-8 people. Duties would include preparing high-quality, varied, nutritious meals, ordering and maintaining groceries, organising the kitchen supplies, providing bag lunches for crew members to take into the field, and generally keeping the kitchen in a clean, tidy and sanitary condition. Commitment to safety and kitchen cleanliness is essential. There is a possibility that the position could be extended into September. This position will appeal to someone who has worked as a camp cook or crew-house cook, who is friendly, flexible, team-oriented, organised and able to offer a variety of meal choices each day. First-Aid and Food-Safe training are assets.

Wage: $300 per day, 7 days per week, for a 10-hour day. Job description available upon request. The cook must make his/her own way to the Bed & Breakfast each morning, but transportation services during the day, as needed, will be provided by Peregrine's expeditor.

GEOTECHNICAL ASSISTANT – SUMMER 2009

(1 Iqaluit-based position)

approx. 13 July until early September

Peregrine Diamonds would like to hire a GEOTECHNICAL ASSISTANT from Iqaluit for our Chidliak Project. Most of the work would be at Peregrine's warehouse in Iqaluit, helping to lay out and log core. Other tasks are possible, and on-the-job training will be provided. Possibility for short-term duties in the field, including up to 4 days in the field as an ARCHAEOLOGICAL ASSISTANT in early August. This position will appeal to someone who has Grade 12 or equivalent, is physically fit, computer literate and is familiar with data entry and spreadsheets.

Wage: $230 per day, 5 to 7 days per week, depending on workload. Job description available upon request.
